

Cut in Kansas.

A man of rather disreputable character died in a remote part of Waterloo township a short time since. The neighborhood concluded, as was the custom, to have his funeral sermon preached, so they went off for a preacher. He came and preached a sort of a general sermon, winding up by saying that he knew nothing about the deceased and therefore could not say anything, but he would gladly hear any one in the congregation who might have a word to say. All were dumb. Again the invitation was extended, and no response. After a moment's silence, an old fellow, who occupied a back seat, arose and said: "If no one has anything to say about the corpse, I would like to make a few remarks on the sub-treasury.—Emporia Republican.

"It is all over town!" "What?" "So it is, but Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup is all over town too, you can buy it everywhere for 25 cents a bottle.

The careful mother always keeps Salvation Oil handy. 25 cents a bottle.

Did You Know it?

A common cough is the most dangerous thing in the world to neglect; a slight hacking cough is also very dangerous, as it leads to bronchitis and consumption. Don't neglect them. In selecting a remedy for coughs, colds and bronchitis, be sure and get one that is not full of opium and one that will not produce constipation. Ballard's Horehound Syrup does not constipate; remember this. It is perfectly harmless for children, and it's the most soothing and healing throat and lung medicine in the world. It cures consumption, coughs, colds, sore throat, asthma, whooping cough, croup, bronchitis, hoarseness, sore lungs, tickling in the throat and greatly strengthens the lungs after pneumonia. Sold by Smith & Dunkin.

Daniel Webster's Unlicked Hand.

Daniel Webster, as a boy in the rude village school at Salisbury (now Franklin), N. H., where he lived in boyhood, was not free from the small pranks and mischiefs in which boys of a dozen years are (or used to be) apt to indulge even in school hours. It was a whipping punishment then for almost everything, and the master, a hard disciplinarian, had called Daniel up to his chair.

"I used to have, I am sorry to say it," said the statesman, "as a schoolboy, very dirty hands. On being called up to be 'fueled' the customary punishment then, I covertly and hastily licked one hand, to make it more presentable, and hurriedly wiped it by rubbing it on my sleeve, after getting up from my seat.

"Hold out your hand!" the command, and out went the hand I had tried to lick.

"Dan," exclaimed the master in a reproving tone, looking at the dirty little paw, "if you can show me a dirtier hand than that in all this school I'll let you off."

"Immediately," added Webster, "I thrust out the other hand!" The schoolmaster was stumped. But he was as good as his word; he let me off.

Singular, but an actual fact. Every one using Beggs' Diarrhoea Balsam say they never tried a medicine so wonderfully adapted to all bowel complaints, as it relieves at once and no bad results following. Every bottle warranted. Sold by W. A. McKeenhan.

Western farmers are now urging the trial of a modification of the rain-producing system, to see if mists cannot be formed at times which will reduce the radiation of heat from the earth and thus save the crops from frost.

"Oh! how dreadfully yellow and greasy my face is getting." Say do you know this is all caused by a disordered liver, and that your skin can be changed from a dark greasy yellow to a transparent white by the use of Beggs' Blood Maker? Every bottle guaranteed by W. A. McKeenhan.

The consciousness of having a remedy at hand for croup, pneumonia, sore throat, and sudden colds, is very consoling to a parent. With a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, one feels, in such cases, a sense of security nothing else can give.

Had Not Slept for Years.

Mr. A. an old resident of Rusk, Texas, and manager of the magnificent new hotel at Rusk, informs us he had not slept at night for years except in short naps, owing to incessant coughing. He was advised when very much run down to try Ballard's Horehound Syrup; he was immediately relieved of his cough and his rest improved to such a degree that he could sleep soundly all night; Mr. Jackson states; I regard Ballard's Horehound Syrup superior to any cough syrup on the market, and its freedom from opium and Morphine leave no constipation after using it. For this reason alone I consider it the best cough syrup in the world for children. My lungs are now stronger than they have been for years. This syrup is very soothing to the throat and lungs." Sold by Smith & Dunkin.

If the sun had nothing to do but to shine on the righteous, he would not need to rise quite so early in the morning.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. B. F. Henry, Druggist.

Weak Lungs

May be made to do good service through a long life by a judicious use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The signs of weakness are "shortness of breath," "pains in the chest and back," a persistent cough, feverishness, and raising of blood. All or either of these symptoms may indicate weak lungs, and should have immediate attention.

"I have been a lifelong sufferer from weak lungs, and till I used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, was scarcely ever free from a cough. This medicine always relieves my cough and strengthens my lungs, as no other medicine ever did. I have induced many of my acquaintances to use the Pectoral in throat and lung troubles. It has always proved beneficial, particularly so in the case of my son-in-law, Mr. Z. A. Snow, of this place, who was cured by it of a severe cough."—Mrs. L. I. Cloud, Benton, Ark.

"I have had lung trouble for about one year and have tried many different remedies, but nothing does me so much good as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I heartily recommend this medicine."—Cynthia Horst, Harmony, Me.
